Close call: The houses located just 20m behind this razed furniture factory in Shah Alam, narrowly escaped being burnt down when the factory caught fire. (Bottom pic) There is practically no buffer zone between these houses in Kampung Sri Muhibbah and the factory behind them. — FAIHAN GHANI/The Star

A spark too close

Houseowners in numerous villages fear for their lives and properties as illegal factories are practically built up to their backyards and pose a fire threat. >2&3
