

File photo of an enterprising Chinese man pushing his bicycle loaded with recyclable plastic containers. — Reuters

Weighed down by waste

China's decision to stop accepting the world's plastic scrap for recycling is forcing countries to rethink this bundle of burden. >2