

She said the affidavit filed by Hamdan had been scrutinised by the public, following which, some had suggested that the case be referred to a Royal Commission of Inquiry (RCI).

Hamdan filed the affidavit in April to object to an appeal and a stay of the application brought by The Save Seafeld Mariamman Temple Task Force, which had wanted to be included in the inquest.

The affidavit states that Adib's injuries were not caused by rioters in front of Sri Mariamman temple in Subang Jaya on Nov 27.

However, on July 27, Thomas in his affidavit said he did not meet Hamdan, and that all affidavits filed by the latter regarding Adib's inquest were not under his direct instruction.

On the media statement, the A-G also clarified that the Attorney-General's Chambers (AGC) had issued another media statement to clarify Syazlin's withdrawal.

Adib, 24, was reported to have been critically injured when he and a team of firemen answered a distress call about a torched vehicle outside the Sri Maha Mariamman temple in Subang Jaya on Nov 27.

Initial reports claimed that he had been assaulted by a group of rioters. However, this has yet to be ascertained.

Adib was taken to Subang Jaya Medical Centre and later transferred to the National Heart Institute. Despite showing signs of recovery, Adib died on Dec 17.
