

"They were not involved in Adib's death. I hope this clears the air once and for all," he said.

Comm Huzir attributed some media headlines on Dec 10 last year as a source of confusion that linked the four men to Adib's death.

On Sept 27, the Coroner's Court ruled that Adib's death was caused by two or more persons unknown after 41 days of hearings.

Sessions Court judge Rofiah Mohamad who sat as coroner for the inquest concluded that the blunt chest trauma injuries sustained by Adib were not self-inflicted nor caused by an accident during the Nov 27 riot outside the Seafeld Sri Maha Mariamman Temple in Subang Jaya.
