

One-stop centre to shop for your dream house

KUALA LUMPUR: It is time to shop for that dream house. The coming StarProperty fair from Oct 31 at Central i-City is a must-go as it features a wide range of properties to choose from.

There are also free prizes to be won.

Be the early bird and pre-register now at <https://fair.starproperty.my/> to win a free universal travel adapter, valid to the first 100 who register.

The visitor's lucky draw offers RM1,000 worth of shopping vouchers given away every day.

Lucky folk who buy their house at the StarProperty fair may also be going home with a free car.

With the Beli & Menang contest, house buyers stand a chance at winning a brand-new Proton X70 once the sales and purchase agreement is signed.

A group of prominent experts will also provide property-related tips and knowledge via the talks to be held during the event.

For example, Marnyhome chief executive officer Amin Yusoff's presentation will touch on how house owners can increase their property value through interior design.

Other speakers at the fair include propreneur Ikram Merican and Kopilandproperty executive editor Charles Tan.

There is a lot of fun and excitement to be experienced at the four-day fair.

Bring your children along for the puppet-making workshop, a great hands-on activity with a variety of animal puppets to choose from.
