

“They will be briefed to ensure the recycling (activities) in this area run smoothly and also be on the look out against arbitrary discarding of garbage,” she said.

At the national level, she said KPKT would conduct campaigns to remind the public against littering such as the ‘Dare Reproach’ campaign by encouraging Malaysians to dare to tick off any one who did not put garbage in dustbins.

Generally, the people of Malacca who were met by Bernama supported the new government policy and were of the opinion that it had to start at the most fundamental level, namely, every family, before it became a culture in society. - Bernama
